

By-Gone Days

Twenty Years Ago

(From the files of the Oregon Mist September 28, 1900.)

According to the report of prizes awarded for exhibit of cattle at the state fair, published in the Oregonian of Monday, we find the names of H. West of Seapooose frequently mentioned, often as being awarded the first prize and any number of times as being awarded the second prize.

There is one peculiarity about the run of fall fish this season that is difficult to explain. When the fall season opened there were many of the late July run in the river, but they were of the too little type and of no use for canning. During the past few days an entirely new run has started in the river, and while it is not large it is pronounced to be the pure Chinook salmon and its appearance, quality and color justifies the belief. They are generally considered to be hatchery fish.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

(From the files of the Oregon Mist September 27, 1895.)

Born, at Columbia City, Ore., Sept. 15, 1895, to the wife of W. P. McClary, a girl.

The Cooper fountain is an ornament to the town, presenting a metropolitan appearance to Front street. The big fire proof safe, after standing in the middle of the street for several days, took another start last Tuesday and landed in Newell's store. It is a good thing that safe has wheels.

The sturgeon industry is proving a source from which our local fishermen are receiving considerable cash, and as the season advances the run is expected to be greater.

Twenty-Eight Years Ago

(From the files of the Oregon Mist September 30, 1892.)

W. T. Mason has sold his property in St. Helens and rented the farm of H. P. Watkins, about three miles out of town, to which he will move in a short time.

T. C. Watts went down to Clatskanie and Mayger Monday last on business of a political nature. On that day the republican central committee, consisting of T. C. Watts, W. H. Conyers and Charles Mayger, held a meeting at Mayger for the purpose of consulting in regard to the campaign now in progress.

A new two-horse hack is expected to add comfort and luxury to the blood family when they want to come to town or go elsewhere for an airing.—Clatskanie Notes.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

North Bend will amend charter so that only freeholders can vote at elections providing for new bond issues.

Balem and The Dalles dehydration plants will handle 1200 to 1300 tons.

Asaria will vote in November on $100,000 bonds for Youngs bay bridge.

The canning and preserving industry in Oregon has been responsible for prosperous farming conditions in the state. The industry has only and with proper encouragement will mean millions annually to Oregon farmers and fruitgrowers.

Portland gets new steamer service to Mexican, South American and Austral ports—the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Japanese line. Also, a new five-day passenger and freight service to Prisco.

Index figures compiled by the big mercantile agencies show steady decline in average prices of 5.7 per cent since May 1st.

Close-In Acreage

HERE IS THE CHANCE TO GET THAT ACREAGE TRACT YOU HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR

We are dividing 120 A. adjoining the City Limits in tracts to suit the purchaser at reasonable prices and on easy terms. This is the only close-in acreage that is within easy walking distance of the industrial center and close to school with good soil. It has a County Road through center and will have free mail delivery. It is also just off the paved Columbia Highway, giving a paved road right down town. There is plenty of timber for shade and some for wood.

This is the CHANCE you have been waiting for. Better come early and get your choice of land.
